

A magnifying glass with a black handle is positioned over a sheet of postage stamps. The lens is focused on a specific stamp, which is a portrait of a man. The background is a grid of various other stamps in different colors and designs, including some with portraits and others with abstract patterns. The overall image has a slightly desaturated, vintage feel.

ABOUT US

WHO WE ARE

LibanPost is a young postal operator, privately owned, and in charge of operating the postal sector in Lebanon.

With a combination of experience, knowledge, and passion, LibanPost's 1,000+ employees have been instrumental in creating a uniquely satisfying customer experience for every client.

OUR SERVICES

LibanPost offers today more than 150 services covering postal, governmental, financial, corporate, e-shopping, retail and PHILATELY services.

OUR LOCATIONS

LibanPost offices are distributed all over the Lebanese territory and are present in shopping malls and supermarkets with late opening hours. The total number of our current offices is 95.

STAMPS & PHILATELY IN LEBANON

Under French military occupation, Overprint stamps of France were used in Lebanon

First official Lebanese Stamp appeared with "Liban" connotation

Previously produced abroad, Lebanese stamps production shifted In-house

STAMPS PRINTING PROCESS

The Stamps Printing Process is part of our ISO 9001 certified flowcharts

LibanPost – QMS7.5.1PS – Printing of Stamps - 111001

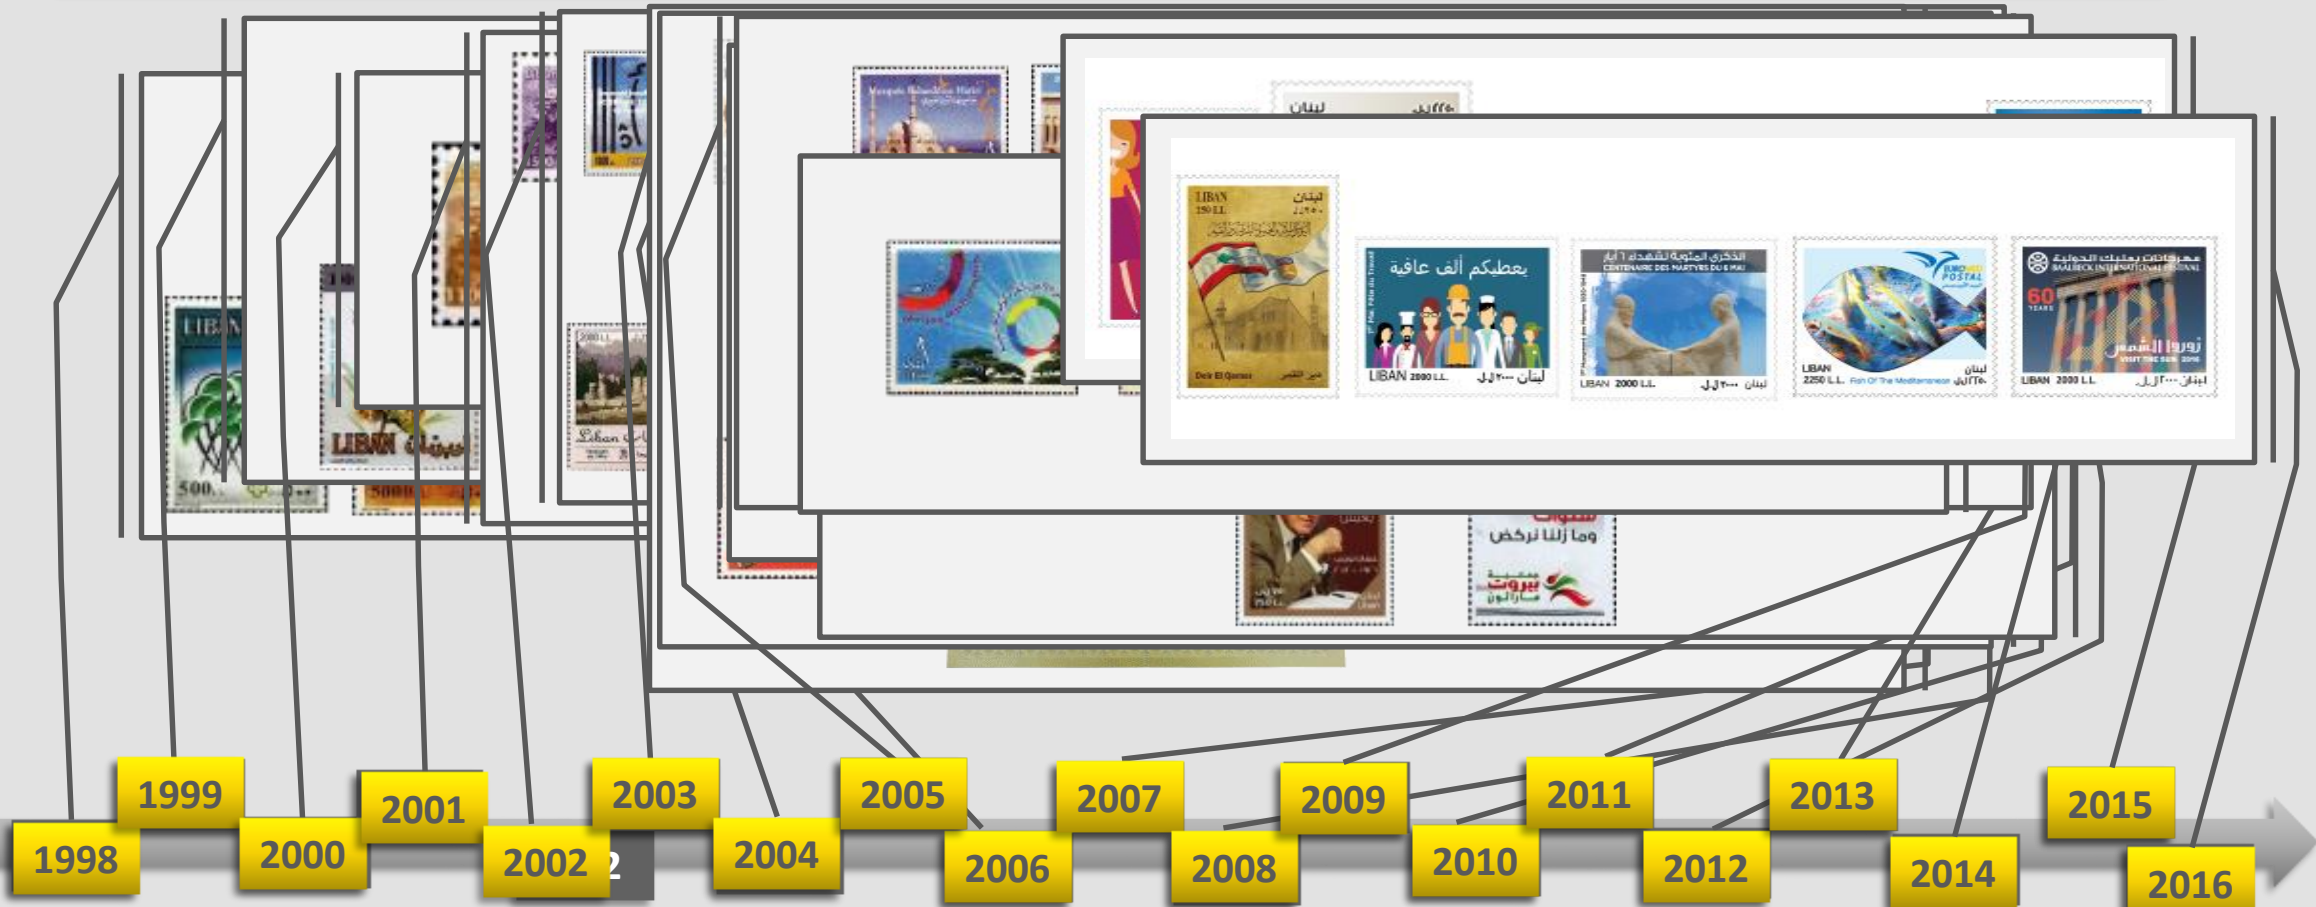

OUR LIBRARY

LEBANESE STAMPS

Since 1988, more than 170 regular and commemorative stamps were issued honoring historical events, public figures, and other subjects & designs that shaped the nation

BLOCKS

Blocks are of interest not only because they are rarer than individual stamps, but they also preserve relative positions of stamps as they were originally printed. LibanPost issued 12 blocks to date.

COVERS & CARDS

FIRST DAY COVERS

Starting 2011, a First Day cover accompanied 89% of the postage stamps issued; these covers were outstanding by the special designs and material used.

COMMEMORATIVE COVERS

Prepared for stamps already in circulation to honor the event/anniversary or to draw attention on an old stamp that is being revived for a certain occasion.

MAXIMUM CARDS

Two maximum cards were produced in 2014
