

UPU electronic voting system – Quick guide for voters

The UPU International Bureau aims to provide the technology platforms and tools required for UPU members and stakeholders to effectively communicate, collaborate and make decisions in a virtual, hybrid or physical environment. This short guide explains how to use the UPU electronic voting system for decisions in statutory and non-statutory UPU meetings.

1 Technical requirements

To ensure that you are reliably able to access the UPU electronic voting system, you must:

- i Have a good Internet connection: upload 600 Kbps/download 600 Kbps (0.6 Mbps);
- ii Have JavaScript enabled in your Internet browser;
- iii Make sure that your IT administrators have whitelisted the domain mail.electionbuddy.com in your enterprise mail gateway.

2 Participation

To be able to participate in votes and elections during statutory UPU meetings, you must:

- i Be eligible to vote (accredited by your country);
- ii Have a valid UPU account;
- iii Have completed the registration procedure on the UPU event management system;
- iv Have your secret access code.

Please refer to the frequently asked questions (FAQs) at the end of this document for further clarification.

3 Voting process

This procedure applies to all votes and elections.

1 When the vote is started by the vote administrator, you will be invited to vote by e-mail. IMPORTANT: The verification code will enable you to check that your vote was included in the voting results and was not tampered with between the time of voting and the presentation of the final results.

4 Proxy voting

A member country that is assigned a proxy will receive a separate e-mail with a separate secret access code for the proxy country.

The proxy voting procedure follows the same steps as described in section 3 above, using the separate access code for the country being represented.

5 Notice of representation voting

A member country that is assigned the vote via a notice of representation (in accordance with article 3.6 of the Rules of Procedure of Congresses) will be issued with a secret access code for the represented country valid for the duration of that specific meeting session.

The notice of representation voting procedure follows the same steps as described in section 3 above, using the separate secret access code for the country being represented.

6 Troubleshooting

If you encounter any problems during the live voting process, carry out the checks outlined below. If the problem persists, follow the steps for requesting assistance.
